Mr. Zhi Bao

Zhi Bao is a partner of FenXun Partners.

Zhi Bao's practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, private equity and anti-monopoly, all disciplines which he made his own during his over seven years with the Ministry of Commerce (MOFCOM) in Beijing and subsequently at a leading PRC law firm. He had worked for multinational, state-owned and private clients, such as Google, Apple, FedEx, EDF, IFC, Ericsson, Rockwell, Pola, Daiwa; CCB International, China Life, China

Resources, CNOOC, COFCO; CITIC Capital, SAIF Capital, CDH Capital.

At MOFCOM, he spearheaded examination of numerous foreign direct investments, cross-border mergers and acquisitions, and anti-monopoly filings for companies engaged in M&A transactions. He also was a principal draftsman of key regulations relating to restructuring of domestic and offshore companies and cross-border M&A transactions (for both unlisted and listed Chinese target companies, as well as both inbound and outbound transactions) and funds.

As the partner of FenXun Partners, Mr. Bao has pioneered (and obtained approvals for) unique, tested transformations of offshore ownership transaction structures into onshore ownership structures for important clients. Mr. Bao has advised many multinational companies on the regulatory aspects, including but not limited to anti-trust filing and national security review of their cross-border M&A transactions as well as counselling them on the regulatory risks of their business behaviour.

Mr. Patrick Zheng

As a Chinese national, Patrick has been a member of China's international arbitration community for almost 20 years and is a well-known and highly regarded disputes lawyer in China.

Patrick's primary focus is representing Chinese clients in front of international venues such as SIAC, ICC, LCIA, HKIAC and courts of various jurisdictions. He also represents international companies before Chinese arbitration tribunals such as CIETAC (China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission) and the Chinese courts. In addition, Patrick has acted as an arbitrator (both party and CIETAC appointed) in approximately 50 CIETAC arbitrations and prior to entering private practice; he worked for CIETAC in Beijing. He is also an arbitrator of HKIAC, SIAC and KCAB. He has recently been appointed as arbitrator of Chongqing Arbitration Commission and Guangzhou Arbitration Commission. He is regularly ranked as a leading individual in the Chambers and Legal 500 legal directories, and is fluent in Mandarin, English and Korean, with proficiency in Japanese. He is qualified in China and the State of New York.

The Hon. Mr. Justice Blair

Sir William Blair graduated from Oxford University, and practised at the English Bar where he specialised in the law of banking and finance, appearing and advising in many domestic and international disputes and matters.

He became a Queen's Counsel in 1994, and was Chairman of the Commercial Bar Association between 2003 and 2005.

He was appointed a High Court Judge in England and Wales in 2008, and is one of the nominated judges who sit in the Commercial Court.

He served as Chairman of the Qatar Financial Centre Regulatory Tribunal until March 2011.

He became President of the Board of Appeal of European Supervisory Authorities in 2012.

He served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the British Institute of International and Comparative Law until 2015, and is a member of London's Financial Markets Law Committee.

He chairs the Monetary Law Committee of the International Law Association (MOCOMILA), which brings together leading people in the financial law field.

He is a Visiting Professor at the London School of Economics.

He chairs the Law and Ethics in Finance Project, an informal group concerned with standards in the financial sector.

He is Judge in Charge of the Commercial Court.

Kuala Lumpur Regional Centre for Arbitration (KLRCA)

The Kuala Lumpur Regional Centre for Arbitration (KLRCA) was established in 1978 under the auspices of the Asian-African Legal Consultative Organisation (AALCO).

KLRCA was the first regional centre established by AALCO in Asia to provide institutional support as a neutral and independent venue for the conduct of domestic and international arbitration proceedings in Asia.

KLRCA was also established pursuant to a host country agreement with the Government of Malaysia. Furthermore, it is a non-profit, non-governmental and independent international body. It was also the first centre in the world to adopt the UNCITRAL Rules for Arbitration as revised in 2010.

KLRCA has developed new rules to cater to the growing demands of the global business community such as the KLRCA i-Arbitration Rules, the KLRCA Fast Track Rules as well as the Mediation and Conciliation Rules. There has been a tremendous interest in the i-Arbitration Rules and this is evident with KLRCA winning the prestigious Global Arbitration Review Award for 'innovation by an individual or organisation in 2012'.
